

Magaly Nava

Engineering Manager
KEMX

▶ Started at Kimball Electronics in 2009

- Magaly is a resident of Reynosa, Tamaulipas, Mexico. Here, she spends her free time enjoying game and movie nights with her family.
- Kimball Electronics became Magaly's Employer of Choice because here she was able to find balance between her personal and professional goals, as well as the opportunity to continue growing in an excellent work environment. The achievement she is most proud of is when she was promoted as Engineering Manager.
- Along with our company principles, Magaly said she likes that Kimball Electronics is "focused on the satisfaction of our customers and the continuous improvement of our processes to continue growing as a company and professionals."
