

Calin Valcea

Materials Manager
Materials Council Leader
KERO

▣ Started at Kimball Electronics in 2015

Calin lives in Timisoara, Romania. In his free time, he enjoys music and traveling/gaining new experiences, especially with his family and friends.

In his role, Calin enjoys the freedom to design and implement strategies in the supply chain and tactics that could position KERO as a strong competitor in the field. He stated that his favorite moment with the company was when he experienced KERO ship their 1st pallet to their 1st customer.

Calin is proud to be a part of the Kimball Electronics team because "We are well known for an enjoyable work environment, having both focus for our people & customers, as well as developing strong and reliable relationships with our suppliers."
