

Krista Drew

Senior Human Resource
Information System Analyst
KESS

▣ Started at Kimball Electronics in 2010

- Krista lives in Saint Anthony, Indiana with her husband and two sons. In her free time, she loves being with all of her family and friends.
- Before taking on her current role, Krista spent 6 years as a Human Resources Generalist at Kimball Electronics Jasper. Now, she collaborates with all Kimball Electronics locations and takes pleasure in learning about and understanding employee needs to offer effective solutions. Her favorite company memory is her first time visiting Kimball Electronics Poland, where she had the opportunity to work closely with the global Human Resources teams.
- Krista chose Kimball Electronics as her Employer of Choice because of its unique work-life balance that allows her to pursue and grow her career while giving her the flexibility to focus on raising her family. She values the people-focused culture and said, “the teams I work with challenge and encourage me, but they have also become lifelong friends that I can truly depend on.”
